

Frost In Valley Is Forecast For Tonight

Forecast in the El Paso valley was predicted for Friday night in the daily forecast of R. M. Shaver, local weather observer.

Local fruit growers say that the splendid young crop will suffer no material damage unless the temperature drops as low as 25 or 24 degrees.

The latest frost last year in the valley was on May 21.

I understand the hotel managers have been most generous.

"The Paul Jones House has no membership dues. It provides a good dinner for 30 cents, breakfast for 10 cents and tea in the afternoon for 50 cents and at this affair the young officer can bring a woman guest. The beds and bath are only 50 cents."

On the ground floor of the house is a charmingly fitted up living room with comfy chairs, desk and a big open fireplace. Every popular magazine is placed on a table in the room. A place on the bugle library table also occupies the middle of the room. Here the officers may receive their men, friends and officers of the allied armies.

On the upper floors there is another lounge room with a piano, victrola and all sorts of smoking arrangements. Fresh flowers are in every room and the place is most inviting. A big billiard room, perfectly equipped, a gift of one of the members, is particularly enjoyed by the officers who have found out that the club has been specially planned for their comfort.

The dormitory on the top floor has accommodations for 30 beds, and the baths and the shower baths are also Young Officers Welcomed.

"I wish all the young officers passing through New York or stationed around here would make this club their rendezvous," Mrs. Gibson continued, "and that is why I want to have all the publicity I can about it so that they can come here at least and have their meals or write the

TEACHER AND OFFICER'S WIFE CLEARED OF CHARGE
Chicago, Ill., April 12.—The charge of disorderly conduct against Prof. William Isaac Thomas and Mrs. R. M. Granger, was dismissed by Judge Decker in the morning court today.

Attorney Clarence Darrow, of the defense, was upheld in his contention that although the elderly sociologist and the pretty young wife of an army officer were found in a room together at a hotel, this did not constitute disorderly conduct.
